

Thursday, the 7th of October

1900-2200 Mingle & tapas on the mountain at the 'Food Theater' (Matteateret)

From inside the 'Food Theater'

Towards the end of the evening Sudan Dudan (Marit Karlberg & Anders Erik Røine) will play for us! Sudan Dudan is the interplay of two voices surrounded by the plucked and bowed sounds of guitars, langeleik (Norwegian zither), fiddle, banjo and mandolin, and focusing on melodies that have been honed over the course of several generations. Sudan Dudan tells of knights and other hapless inhabitants of broadside ballads, comic ballads, lullabies and other traditional songs.

Listen to Sudan Dudan: <http://www.myspace.com/sudandudan>

Friday, the 8th of October

- 0900-1000 Refreshments and registration
- 1000-1100 Opening of the conference; Welcome to Valdres
Berit Øygard, Bodil Nysveen & Hanne Grøneng; Valdres shows the way
Ulla Rosengren; The network model as part of the coordination project at Akershus University Hospital (in Norwegian)
- 1100-1115 Break
- 1115-1215 Johan Klefbeck, Gunnar Forsberg, Astrid Hultkrantz-Jeppson;
The development of network meetings: From Speck to Arnkil
... Astrid, Gunnar & Johan will conclude their presentation with a conversation and a song in honor their late colleague Kerstin Marklund
- 1215-1315 Lunch
- 1315-1345 Klaus Müller-Nielsen; Crisis resolution teams help solving problems when and where people get them! Can we prove it?"
- 1345-1415 Jaakko Seikkula; The power of being present in the moment in polyphonic dialogues
- 1415-1430 Break
- 1430-1530 Parallell sessions
- 1530-1545 Break
- 1545-1615 Live Fyrand; Network therapy: Useful, but difficult to implement? Some Reflections
- 1615-1645 Tom Arnkil (& Kai Alhanen); The transformative and the local in social network practice: A conceptual analysis combining Latour and Foucault
- 1645-1700 Break
- 1700-1730 Birgit Mortensen; Collaborative methods: Understanding the family and organizations
- 1730-1800 Tarja Heino; Family Group Conference from a Child Perspective
- 1800-1815 Reflections

1930- Conference dinner (followed by dancing...)

Saturday, the 9th of October

0900-0915 Retribalization

0915-0945 Emma Broberg (& Kristin Fløtre); From monologue to dialogue: "Taking up one's worries" as innovative practice in Søndre Nordstrand

0945-1015 Kai Alhanen (& Tom Arnkil); Dewey on dialogism: Being heard and having a say is, in fact, the core of democracy

1015-1030 Break

1030-1130 Workshops

1130-1245 Lunch

1245-1315 Esper Sørensen; Network and relational work with youths with serious mental illness: We are the stories we tell about ourselves and that others tell about us (in Danish)

1315-1345 Liv Schjelderup, Cecilie Omre; Patterns of change processes when family group conferencing is used as an innovative method in social work (in Norwegian)

1345-1400 Break

1400-1530 Open dialogue with panel and the conference participants

1530 Concluding remarks...