

Opponent report

Author of thesis:

Thesis title:

Opponent:

Was it easy to understand the topic of the thesis? Comments.

To what extent does the thesis title reflect the content of the report?

How does the author describe the problem background? Is there an introduction to and a summary of the topic?

To what extent has the author explained the choice of method?

Does the author discuss whether or not the initial assumptions regarding the choice of method are fulfilled?

Is the method well described?

Has the author presented the results clearly?

Do you find the author's conclusions credible?

What do you think of the bibliography? What kind of literature has been included? Does the literature seem relevant?

Which sections of the report were difficult to comprehend?

Other comments about the report and its structure.

Which are the strengths of the thesis/report?

Which are the weaknesses of the thesis/report?

How do you estimate the novelty value of the thesis?

Write a summary of the thesis using only a few lines.

Questions to the author:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.

What is your conclusive assessment of the thesis?

Comments to the oral presentation

(To be given to the author after the oral presentation)

Presentation given by:

Commented by:

Introduction

Presentation of background

Presentation of what you were supposed to do

Presentation of what you have done

Conclusion

Vocal pitch

Enthusiasm and contact with the audience

Application of graphics

Total impression